Privacy Notice

We would like to ensure that we keep the details we hold about you up to date, and that we communicate with you in accordance with your wishes. The College will continue to use the data it holds for the purposes of communication and marketing activities by post, e-mail, telephone, fax or text message, unless you indicate otherwise. We use tools to monitor the effectiveness of our communications with you, including email tracking, which records when an e-mail from us is opened and/or how many links are clicked within the message. The data from this tracking is used in an aggregated and anonymised form. If at any time your details change, or you wish to add or remove yourself from the list of communications sent to you by the College, please contact us. We will not share your data with any other entity, including fellow alumni, without your express permission.
